SUSPECT EX-CONVICT OF SHOOTING MURPHY

Police Are Searching for Negro Who Displayed New Gun.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, March 8.—While laboring under the impression that W. M. Watson, the negro now held at the city jail as a suspect in the shooting of Patrolman John J. Murphy and John Hutchins early Friday morning, there is a possibility that the police have allowed the real criminal to escape. Although Chief of Police W. L. Norton is still convinced that Watson is the man wanted, a search is being made for the Thursday evening ex-convict, who was released from the state prison a few days ago.

The removal of the bullet from Patrolman Murphy's neck today proved an important development. Instead of a 20-caliber, as supposed by the police, it proved to be of a caliber much larger. According to City Physician Walter Whalen, the bullet was at least a 22-caliber and possibly a 24. The bullet he examined marked. The size of the bullet which struck the officer has an important bearing on the case when it is known that the ex-convict purchased a new caliber revolver at a local pawn shop on the night preceding the attempted murder. He has not been seen since that time. As further evidence against the absent negro, it is stated that he is a drug fiend and created a disturbance in the negro section of the city Thursday evening by flourishing the newly-purchased gun.

The view regarding Bryan was furnished by William Dwyer, a resident of the county jail to await sentence for burglary. Officers were on Bryan's trail when the arrest of Watson occurred and the seemingly positive information from the police that he was the man wanted caused a temporary suspension of the search for the other negro. Now he cannot be found. According to those who have seen Bryan he would answer to the description of the man discovered in the act of robbing the grocery store and who afterwards shot the police officer.

Patrolman Murphy recovered nicely from the operation of removing the bullet from his neck. The attending physician has ascertained positively that the bullet was from a .22-caliber pistol. It is possible that the officer will resume his duties within a week or ten days.

TO SPEAK TONIGHT.

Governor Hadley of Missouri to Give Postponed Lecture.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, March 8.—A fruitless effort to secure another date, Chairman L. E. Cowles of the Weber academy lecture course committee was forced to accept Governor Robert S. Hadley for a Sunday night engagement and the Missouri executive will be heard at the academy auditorium tomorrow evening according to the official schedule. Governor Hadley was to have lectured here last night, but he was delayed by a railroad strike.

According to Mr. Cowles, the distinguished lecturer delivered an address before the state legislature and will arrive in Salt Lake until tomorrow afternoon. In view of the fact that he is appearing in this city on Sunday evening, the committee has decided to postpone the lecture until tomorrow night. The address which proved popular with many chautauque audiences on Sunday evening, while it will not be repeated, his remarks are ethical and along a line suitable to the occasion.

CANNOT PUSH WORK.

Investigation of Proposed Route to Logan Delayed Until Spring.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, March 8.—Until the roads are in such condition as to permit of travel by automobile there can be no definite decision regarding the proposed route to Logan, according to officers of the Ogden Rapid Transit company. It is possible that the inspection of the three proposed routes cannot be made before the middle of April.

The plans regarding the Logan line will not interfere with the extension work on the Hinchcliff line. This extension will be pushed as rapidly as possible after the coming of favorable weather. There is a possibility that, should the Bear River valley route be selected, a branch will be built to connect the Ogden Canyon line with the Logan line, thus furnishing a route to all of the principal sections of the north.

SESSION ENDS WITH CHIEFS AND RUSH

Speaker French Driven From Chair When Committee Kills Pet Measures.

Special to The Tribune.

BOISE, March 8.—Midnight tonight was set as the hour to adjourn sine die by the twelfth Idaho legislature, which has been in session in this city for the past sixty-two days, this hour being agreed upon by both houses, following a day featured with exciting scenes and the passage of many bills. At a late hour tonight it was apparent that the clocks in both houses would have to be stopped, forcing the legislature to go into the small hours of the morning to finish their task.

Speaker French was driven from the chair during the morning session, following a scene of confusion in which the entire sixty members in the house stood on their feet at the same time clapping for recognition. The trouble arose over the adoption of the report of the house sifting committee, which excluded many of the pet bills of members. Representative Koelsch saved the day by taking the gavel from the speaker and hammering the desk, forced all members out of order and finally cleared the legislative chamber. The committee report was adopted.

Under suspension of the rules the Ryan public utilities bill was rushed through the senate and house and sent to the governor. With it went the revenue measure, which will be put in operation by one commission controlling both bills. The Ryan bill is virtually in its original form with all of its "teeth." Senator Edgington's workmen's compensation act was killed by indefinite postponement after it passed the senate and was sent to the house. The house demanded the senate to pass the Connor bill, which is favored by workingmen.

The general appropriation bill, carrying over $1,000,000 in appropriations, was passed by the house late today, and approved by the senate after a long wrangle. It contained a $10,000 appropriation for a new judicial district judge in southeastern Idaho, a position created through the passage of a bill today.

The rules of both houses were suspended during the day to permit the clearing of the journal's record and the passage of many bills. Included in the list were the fish and game, a nine-hour day measure for women, blue-sky law, state highway commission and bond issue, pure seed bill, $25,000 bond issue for the improvement of the Snake river at the town of Lorenzo in Fremont county; $25,000 for a state road in Bonner county, relief bill for the city of Montpelier.

The senate refused to act upon the report of the joint committee that investigated the evidence taken in the

to be held in the tabernacle at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. His subject will be "The Current Events of the World." In addition to his missionary work, Elder Taylor supervised the translation of the Book of Mormon into the Japanese language. He will be accompanied by Elder Taylor, there will be special music by the tabernacle choir, together with solo by Myrtle Johnson, William S. Wright and Miss Elsie Shorten.

TO REOPEN PLANT.

Union Portland Cement Company Expects Prosperous Year.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, March 8.—After a month's shutdown for repairs, the Devil's Slide plant of the Union Portland Cement company will resume operations today with a force of 150 men at work. This is the information given out by Manager O. B. Gilson, who has just returned from a trip to the company's plant at Three Forks, Mont. The Montana plant was not closed down for repairs this year, 150 men being employed for many years past. According to present indications, he believes that both plants of the Union Portland company will be kept open throughout the year to fill the large number of orders now coming in. The prospects in Montana, according to the manager, are especially bright.

SAYS HE HAD MONEY.

Sheriff Says Branzag Had Overdraft for Several Months.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, March 8.—M. Branzag, arrested in Montpelier and brought to this city on a complaint charging that he obtained money by false pretenses, was given a preliminary hearing before Judge L. E. Cowles this morning. Branzag declared that had his brother deposited the money which was due him there would have been funds to cover the checks which he had cashed. As a result of this explanation Judge Reader took the matter under advisement.

The complaint was signed by A. L. Kohn of the Robu Liquor company, who stated that Branzag had cashed 10 to 15 checks for 12 to 15 months. The firm held the man's checks for various amounts, the whole totaling about $65. Deputy Sheriff L. E. Hinchcliff stated that Branzag had an overdraft at a local bank for several months.

To Take Tourists Through Canyon.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, March 8.—According to the announcement of the Cheesman Automobile company, the Salt Lake firm which recently opened a branch in this city, Ogden is soon to have its first "rubberneck" trip. The company has planned to equip a Federal truck to accommodate eighteen passengers and operate the car through Ogden canyon as soon as the season opens. The trip will make the complete trip from the union passenger station to the Hermitage hotel and return.

In addition to the canyon trip the auto company will arrange to take the tourists on a "rubberneck" trip about the city if it is desired. Should the business be sufficient other of the eight-seater cars will be placed in service during the season.

SOLONS FAIL TO FINISH SESSION

BOISE, March 8.—After adopting a concurrent resolution to adjourn sine die at 1 a. m., the Idaho house reconsidered, although the resolution was in the hands of the senate, and at midnight adjourned until tomorrow. The house reconsidered after learning that the senate planned to adjourn without passing its workmen's compensation act. Senate members declare they will adjourn at the hour agreed upon despite the house's later action, and a peculiar parliamentary tangle threatens.

Senate Notes

Judge John F. Childster of Richfield and Will Brown of Salina arrived in Salt Lake yesterday to add to the establishment of an automobile route through Salina canyon. Judge Childster thinks the Midland trail should come through Salina canyon to Richfield, circle thrice about the city, and then go south to the Grand canyon of the Colorado.

The senate yesterday received the Midland trail bill from the governor and after amending it slightly passed the bill again. The amendment makes a slight change in the route in the eastern part of the state and provides that counties which receive road appropriations under the Midland trail bill shall have the amount deducted from that which they would otherwise receive from the general road appropriation.

The Kelly bill providing for the deposit of health certificates by applicants for marriage licenses with county clerks was killed in the senate yesterday. The bill was regarded by many of the senators as being too stringent. Six voted for the bill and nine against it.

The senate yesterday concurred in the house amendments to the Lunt bill for the sale of food and drugs in the farming territory and the Perry bond issue bill, though the senate, prior to concurring in the house amendments, voted to kill both bills. That action to reject the bills was taken when there was a bare quorum present and both lacked a constitutional majority. Later the action was reconsidered and both bills finally passed.

At a conference yesterday afternoon representatives of the municipal league and of the liquor interests agreed to amendments in the house liquor bills now before the senate and, with the amendments, they will be reported favorably to the senate. Representatives of the municipal league consented to the killing of the Lunt bill in order to provide sufficient revenue to the state to provide sufficient revenue to the shipping of intoxicants from wet to dry territory.

The senate sifting committee decided to report favorably the Wight "anti-money trust" bill, which would prevent the Salt Lake clearing house from establishing a rule making the rates of interest or discount to be allowed by the banks.

Twenty-six bills were acted upon yesterday by the senate sifting committee, nineteen of which were reported adversely, six favorably and one without recommendation.

The senate yesterday, by a vote of six to five, killed the bill providing for a teachers' retirement fund to be raised by the voluntary assessment of teachers of 2 per cent of their annual salaries. The motion was taken hurriedly by the senate after Senators Cottrell and Wight had objected to the measure. Following the action several senators said they had voted against the bill under a misapprehension and it is possible that some action looking to a reconsideration of the measure will be taken. The purpose of the bill was to amend the present teachers' retirement law in order to provide sufficient revenue to the state to provide sufficient revenue to the shipping of intoxicants from wet to dry territory.

In rapid succession and without opposition the senate yesterday passed a series of bills relating to the prosecution of liquor cases in prohibition.

tion territory. These bills were passed in the interest of the State League of Municipalities which has been aiding the "dry" cities and towns in the state in efforts to enforce the liquor law. The bills were originally passed by the house and yesterday by the senate after several amendments had been added by the sifting committee.

The employers' liability and workmen's compensation act which was to have come up as a special order in the senate yesterday, went over until Monday, as did also Senator Smith's bill for the initiative, the referendum and the recall in cities of the first and second classes.

Stephen H. Love of the Commercial club traffic bureau, and Col. C. A. Quigley spoke before the sifting committee of the senate yesterday afternoon urging the passage of the public utilities bill. The committee will hear the railroad side of the case next week.

Warner's Fashion

If your corset is a Warner's, you are assured that your figure style is right.

Every Warner is kept "up to the minute" in style. Your merchant has no Warner corset that is not in keeping with the season's dress.

Of course they are comfortable—we do not recognize one type of figure only, but every type of form, and each design is tested on a living model. Your dealer guarantees your Warner's to you not to rust, not to break, not to tear, and to wear as long as you want a corset to wear.

Are you thinking about your Spring clothes? It is time—Warner's Spring and Summer models are at your store and you can buy your corset now.
